Schedule my “high positive energy” for your next event! I am available for guest speaking and to facilitate the workshops listed above. My mission is to empower men and women to reconnect to their inner Spirit and help them release their negative thought patterns that may be blocking them from being more prosperous, joyful, and free in both their business and personal life.

With my life stories which are the greatest teachers, I demonstrate that we are all powerful beings and within every one of us there is greatness.

From 2004-2014 I had my own outreach ministry in Ft. Pierce Florida, where I fed the homeless, turned my home into a shelter and inspired thousands to dig deep and reunite with their greatness. After losing everything and becoming homeless myself, I have learned the key to prosperity.

My aim is not to change people’s spiritual beliefs, but to help them break through limited thought patterns that block them from expressing who they really are.

With my signature talks and workshops, I create space for healing as I guide the audience with my energy to take positive action steps to move forward.

My deepest desire is that every hurting heart knows it is possible to take the cards they have been dealt and create their own winning hand.
